Anti-dumping measures

7376. SHRI S. MADHAVAN : Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have taken steps to evolve anti-dumping measures to ensure that Indian manufacturers do not suffer due to unfair competition from foreign goods under the liberalised policy ;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) whether Government have received any representation from the basic chemicals, pharmaceuticals and cosmetics export promotion council ?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE) : (a) and (b) The Indian Customs Tariff Act, 1975, as amended in October, 1982 empowers Government to enforce anti-dumping duties in those cases in which dumped goods are found to be causing material injury to the domestic industry. Before such a duty can be imposed, the Authority designated by Government has to make a finding on the existence of dumping and injury to the domestic industry; and a casual link between the dumped goods and the alleged injury to the domestic industry. The Designated Authority, under the Customs Tariff Act and Customs Tariff Rules thereunder, is normally required to initiate an investigation only upon receipt of a written request supported by evidence of dumping, injury to the domestic industry and a casual link between the two by or on behalf of the affected domestic industry. Government has since put in place the necessary arrangements to investigate and redress cases of injurious dumping.

(c) No, Sir.
